Our Journey

About BMA

The Bangalore Management Association (BMA), a pioneer in Indian management, was established in 1953 and is affiliated to All India Management Association (AIMA), New Delhi. As an independent, non-profit organization it is dedicated to promoting sound management practices through various initiatives such as seminars, workshops, conferences, and training programs. BMA has a rich history of bringing together eminent personalities, industry leaders and management practitioners. It continues to be a leading management association in India, driving innovation and shaping the future of management. The BMA is in the process of completing the construction of the Management Development Center.

Key Result Areas

Platinum Jubilee Celebration

For seven decades, the Bangalore Management Association (BMA) has been at the forefront of management excellence in India. From its humble beginnings in 1950s, BMA has evolved into a leading platform for knowledge sharing, networking, and professional development. We've had the privilege of hosting eminent thought leaders, industry pioneers, and aspiring managers. As we commemorate this milestone, we reaffirm our commitment to fostering innovation, driving growth, and empowering the next generation of leaders.
